We announce the second World Ornamental Horticulture Summit

Following the success of the inaugural World Ornamental Horticulture Summit in 2019 in Beijing, the second Summit invites professionals from around the world to the AIPH-approved Expo 2022 Floriade Amsterdam Almere to discover the future of horticulture in the digital age, on Wednesday 28 September.

With a theme of 'Influencing change in a digital world', the 2022 Summit will bring together experts and influencers from the horticultural industry to discuss: how new media and digital marketing can be utilised to drive sales; how social media can influence the supply chain; and how the industry can prepare for a new world of consumer power.

AIPH World Green City Awards 2022 Gala Event

AIPH is thrilled to announce that the inaugural AIPH World Green City Awards Ceremony is set to take place on 14 October 2022 during the International Forum for the Conservation of Nature - IUCN Leaders Forum hosted this year in the Special Self-Governing Province of Jeju, Republic of Korea.

The AIPH World Green City Awards 2022 are designed to champion ambitious nature-orientated approaches to city design and operation. Specifically, it recognises initiatives reflecting a greater use of plants and nature to enhance city environments – helping to fulfill local objectives for improved economic, social and environmental resilience.

A global shortlist of 18 cities has been announced and an international jury of technical experts are currently deliberating each of their merits ahead of the Award Ceremony on 14 October.
Blossoming participation at Floriade Expo 2022

Delegates at the Floriade Expo 2022, have completed the second round of judging at this world horticultural and garden festival. The event is a great opportunity for people of the plant world, especially those in the plant breeding sector, to exchange views, share knowledge and understand the latest developments in the field.

Expo 2022 is an international horticultural and garden festival held every 2 years in different cities around the world. The next event is scheduled to take place in 2023 in Suncheon, South Korea.

The AIPH Horticulural Expo News is a bi-monthly publication that provides information on the latest developments in the field of horticulture. It is published by the AIPH, the International Association of Horticultural Producers, which represents the global horticulture industry.
