

AIPH International Expo Conference features a tour of 2023 Suncheonman International Garden Expo

Make sure to mark 18 September, 2023, on your calendars! The International Expo Conference will be held during the AIPH 75th Annual Congress in South Korea.

The International Expo Conference presents an outstanding opportunity for AIPH-approved Expo organisers and major event suppliers to connect with industry professionals, city representatives, urban developers, landscape designers, NGOs, international city and environmental organisations.

Attendees will have the chance to explore the 193-hectare 2023 Suncheonman Expo park site, which features the Suncheon Bay Wetlands, Suncheon Bay National Garden, and downtown Suncheon, in the afternoon.

This is an unparalleled opportunity to gain valuable insights and connections within the industry - don't miss out!
